INDEX

TO THE

TWENTY-SECOND VOLUME

OF THE

Weekly Entertainer.

A.

ADVERTISEMENT, curious, 401.

African Society, report of the, 324.

Agriculture, Board of, list of the members of the, 270.

Agricultural report for June, 66. July, 116. Auguſt, 272. September, 400. October, 492. November, 631.

Amſterdam, account of the Loan or Lombard Bank of, and of the Bank of Exchange, 97.

Anagrams, 116, 260, 332. Anſwers to, 115, 188, 212, 332.

Anecdote of Roman generoſity, 19. of an honeſt but unfortunate tradeſman, 42. of Hogarth, 43. of the ingenious Mr. Vivarez, 62. of Sir Godfrey Kneller, 78. of the little reſpect paid to the fair ſex ſince the Revolution, 91. of Lord Germaine, 128. of Captain Moulon, who commanded the French ſhip Cleopatra, 137. of Frederick William I. King of Pruſſia, 162. of a Juſtice of Peace and a countryman, 163. relative to reformers, 183. concerning Monmouth's rebellion, 184. of a puniſhment for duelliſts, 186. of his preſent Majeſty, 187. of Gallic levity, ibid. of a remarkable old woman, 234. of the King of Navarre, 235. of a recruiting officer, ibid. in natural hiſtory, 277. a theatrical one, 283. of a cheeſe factor, 297. of Sir John Barnard, 307. of Dr. M. of Bath, 330. a curious political one, 337. of ſome ſmuggling Jeſuits, 350. of Sir John Tabor, 355. of the late King of Pruſſia, 356. of an apothecary's wife, 379. of Drainie, a pariſh in Scotland, 405. of the Hon. Mr. Trevor, 420. relative to wedlock, 421. of Haſſan Captain Pacha, a late celebrated Turkiſh Admiral, 427. of Hading, King of Denmark, and Hunding, King of Sweden, ibid. of a domeſtic inſtitution at Leiceſter, 449. of Louis the Eleventh, 460. of Dr. Franklin, 495. of a phyſician, 499. of the Prince of Saxe Cobourg, 521. of Dr. Oliver, of Bath, 522. of the politeneſs of a Mayor of Coventry, 524. of a South Hants militia man, 540. relative to the loſs of the Great Seal, 588. of Dean Swift, 596.

Anecdotes of General Dumourier, 9. of Mr. Brindley, the engineer, 18. of the Queen of France, 379, 541. of John

Duke

Duke of Montagu, 404. of the celebrated Briſſot, 520. of Major Semple, 625.
Antique ſtatue diſcovered, 632.

B.

Bacon, method of preſerving it from becoming rancid, 161.
Barrymore, Earl of, concluſion of the account of that eccentric character, 1.
Bayard, Chevalier, ſome account of his life, from the French of M. G. de Beville, 195.
Beau, Mr. Le, a narrative of his remarkable ſufferings, 193, 223, 256, 279.
Benezet, Anthony, the life of, an eminent Quaker, 135.
Bet, a ſingular, 355.
Billings, William, who lived to be 114, account of, 354.
Brunſwick, Duke of, Dr. Moore's obſervations on his retreat, 593.
Byron, Captain George Anſon, ſhort account of, 28.

C.

Cape Francois, in St. Domingo, narrative of what paſſed there from June 8 to June 23, 1793, 368.
Capet, Hugh, King of France, Mr. Gifford's character of him, 474.
Cattle, remarkable ſales of, 421.
Charades, 21, 69, 117, 141, 237, 260, 284, 308, 357, 405, 429, 476, 477, 573, 644, 645. Anſwers to, 44, 67, 92, 115, 140, 187, 235, 236, 331, 332, 428, 476, 500, 548, 597, 619.
China, journal of the expedition to, by an officer of the Lion man of war, 258.
Coining, Mr. Boulton's new apparatus for, 186.
Common people, hints concerning their education, 150, 169.
Compaſſion and good nature, on the exerciſe of, 207.
Cornwallis, Earl, account of his interview with the Mahrattas, and of their military ſkill, by Major Dirom, Deputy Adjutant-General of his Majeſty's Forces in India, 226.
Courtenay, Captain, particulars relative to the late gallant, 301.
Curates, reflections on their ſituation under the preſent eſtabliſhment, 36, 63, 79.
Curioſity, a ſingular, 318.

D.

Digby, Earl of, in Lincolnſhire, and Viſcount Coleſhill, genealogical account of that noble family, 385.
Diſhley farm, remarks on the management of, 371.
Dock-yard, thoughts occaſioned by viſiting one, 476.
Dog, remarkable and authentic inſtance of the fidelity of one, 403.
Domeſday Book, Mr. Jones's particular deſcription of, 299.
Domingo, St. or the Mole of St. Nicholas, ſhort account of, 641.
Dreiden china, origin of, 511.

E.

Eaſtcott, Mr. James, ſon of the Rev. Mr. Eaſtcott, of Exeter, ſhort ſketch of the character of that reſpectable young man, 27.
Eclipſe of the moon, 381.
Enigmas, 44, 189, 213, 260, 285, 309, 333, 381, 501, 525, 542, 620. Anſwers to, 20, 44, 68, 116, 140, 284, 453, 475, 500, 524, 548, 620.
Epitaph, a true, 283.
Eſquire, on the title of, 145.
European politics, general review of, 49, 153, 249, 361, 468, 581.
Executive power, Dr. Ferguſon's obſervations on the, 452.

Family

F.

Family picture, or domeſtic felicity, 267, 303, 313.
France, Marie Antoinette, Queen of, authentic account of her trial, 513, 542, 564, 588, 593.
France, new calender for, 419.
French invaſion, on the abſurdity of the idea of a, 606.
French National Convention, deſcription of the new hall of the, 7.
French war, thoughts on the preſent, ſuggeſted by recent events, by John Bowles, Eſq. 73.
Friendly Societies, heads of the bill brought into the Houſe of Commons by Mr. Roſe, and now paſſed into a law, for their encouragement and relief, 25. an abſtract of the ſaid bill, and remarks thereon, 409.

G.

Game laws, abſtract of the, 439.
Gaſton, Monſieur, account of, the celebrated leader of the French Royaliſts in Britanny, 26.
George I. character of, by the Rev. Mr. Belſham, 499.
George II. character of, by the ſame, 523.
Glaſgow, Mr. Heron's account of the extraordinary change of manners which commerce and opulence have introduced into Glaſgow, the weſtern emporium of Scotland, 177.
Gravel, efficacious recipe for the, 35.

H.

Hainault, extraordinary hiſtory of Jacqueline, Counteſs of, 83.
Hanoverian grenadiers, account of an almoſt entire deſtruction of a company of the third battalion of them in the campaign of 1793, extracted from a letter ſent by the Captain of the ſame company to his brother, Mr. Cronhelm, at Exeter, 345.
Health, on, 457, 489, 534.
Hops, calculation reſpecting their annual conſumption, and the ſtock now in hand, 297.
Honey, value of, 234.
Hunting, the King of Pruſſia's reflections on, 17.

I.

Indians, intereſting account of the cuſtoms and manners of thoſe ſituated eaſtward of the Miſſiſſippi, 241.
Iron, gold, and ſilver, comparative value of, 161.
Italy, on the compariſon between England and, 14.

J.

Jones, Captain, authentic narrative of his humane adventure in the Cheſterfield packet, to ſave at ſea the crew of another ſhip from ſinking, 642.
Jury, a new method of challenging one, 467.

K.

Knowledge, learning, and taſte, hiſtory of, during the reign of Queen Elizabeth, 505, 553, 605, 626.

L.

Louis XVI. character of, 39. Dr. Moore's account of the events attendant on his execution, 644.

M.

Macartney, hiſtory of the unfortunate Mr. 558.
Maccabees, curious commentary on a paſſage from the ſecond book of the, 185.
Man, Lavater's aphoriſms on, 221.
Manners in Scotland, remarkable change therein ſince 1760, 331.

Meares,

Meares, Captain, account of his voyage from Bengal in the ſhip Nootka, in 1786, 201, 217.
Meares, Captain, his account of the dexterity of the natives of Friendly Cove in taking the whale and hunting the ſea-otter, 466.
Mice, an effectual method to prevent them from eating the grain in ſtacks or mows, or cheeſe, or other articles, uſually injured by thoſe vermin, 405.
Mind and manners, on the degeneracy of both in the higher claſſes of life, 319.
Modern infidels, hint to, 175.
Money, propoſal for lending ſmall ſums of, for a ſhort time, without intereſt, to virtuous and induſtrious perſons, labouring under temporary difficulties, 125.
Money, the way to make it plenty in every man's pocket, by Dr. Franklin, 273.

N.

Navigation, remark reſpecting, 353.
Negroes, character of the, by Bryan Edwards, Eſq. 372.
Novels and romances, on, 399.

P.

Pelew Iſlands, intereſting particulars reſpecting the, 289.
Pits in Derbyſhire, deſcription of, by H. Rooke, Eſq. 281.
Plague, a recipe to cure the, 522.
Poland, King of, his ſpeech at the ſitting of the Poliſh Diet at Grodno, July 17, 1793, 204.
Political reform, on, 220.
Poor, on the diſtreſſes of the, 231.
Poſſing, a letter to the Duke of Bedford on the price of, in anſwer to the advertiſement ſigned by the Grand Jury of the county of Leiceſter, his Grace, and many other noblemen and gentlemen, in oppoſition to the advance recently made therein, 422.
Potatoes, on the cultivation of land with them, by Samuel Dunn, Eſq. 128.
Prince of Wales's Iſland, Mr. Howiſon's account of it, 172.
Prophecy, a remarkable, 618.
Pruſſia and Poland, treaty between, ſigned at Grodno, September 25, 538.

Q.

Queſtions, 21, 68, 116, 188, 237, 284, 317, 333, 429, 476, 573, 611. Anſwers to, 43, 91, 139, 211, 259, 307, 380, 452, 499, 548, 597, 644.

R.

Rebuſes, 21, 68, 92, 93, 117, 141, 188, 237, 260, 285, 309, 357, 380, 453, 477, 525, 573, 620. Anſwers to, 19, 44, 92, 116, 140, 163, 188, 212, 236, 260, 284, 309, 332, 380, 429, 500, 548, 644.
Remark, a curious, 139.
Rouſſeau, John James, character of the celebrated, 402.
Royal diſburſements, account of, in the commencement of the fourteenth century, 355.

S.

Schwerin, Chriſtopher Count, late Field Marſhal to the King of Pruſſia, account of, 461, 481.
Scolding, on the diſeaſe of, 395.
Scotch ſailor, the honeſt, 496.
Sexes, equality of the, 643.
Smut in wheat, on the beſt method of preventing, 306.
Social good the true ſource of the pureſt and moſt laſting enjoyment, 326.
Spearing, Lieutenant George, narrative of his ſufferings, while he lived ſeven nights in a coal pit, without any ſuſtenance except from rain water, 339.

St. Meard,

St. Meard, M. affecting account of his ſufferings from Aug. 22 to September 4, 1792, on the 2d and 3d of which month were perpetrated the dreadful maſſacres of the priſoners at Paris, 57.
Story, authentic and intereſting, 351.
Subordination in ſociety, on the neceſſity of, 209.
Sunday ſchools, pleaſing account of the manner in which the anniverſary of thoſe eſtabliſhed in the neighbourhood of Briſtol was lately celebrated, 229.

T.

Tactics, ſhort account of the principal means uſed both in defenſive and offenſive, 99.
Thunder and lightning, general obſervations on, by John Read, of Knightſbridge, 89.
Tippoo Sultan's ſons, Major Dirom's account of their arrival as hoſtages at the head quarters of Earl Cornwallis, and of the final adjuſtment of the treaty between Tippoo and that illuſtrious nobleman, 245.
Touraco, M. le Vaillant's account of the dangers and difficulties he encountered in procuring an African bird ſo called, 450.
Tradeſman, Dr. Franklin's advice to a young one, 292.
Trials, intereſting, 31, 105, 131, 181, 224, 293, 370, 493, 638.
Troy, ſingular cauſes of the celebrity of that ancient city, 449.
True dignity, 179.
Turin, deſcription of the city of, with a general account of Savoy, &c. 413, 433.

V.

Verſes. Reflections upon the grave, 22. epitaph to the memory of a friend, by W. Cory, of Waſhford, Somerſet, ibid. ſonnet to rational liberty, on reading the accounts of the horrid acts of the Paris mob, by Dr. Mavor, 24. invocation to peace, ibid. Thirty-eight, addreſſed to Mrs. H—y, by Mrs. Charlotte Smith, 46. a bird's neſt, 47. a ſonnet to ſpring, 48. to a gentleman who complained of having loſt his gold watch, ibid. a hot day, written in a hot night, 70. the philanthropiſt, 71. an epigram, 72. extempore, on Kitty, ibid. lines addreſſed to gentlemen, farmers, and cornmerchants, 94. on friendſhip, 95. ſtanzas on evening, 96. the ſeaſons, ibid. characters of eminent Engliſh poets, by Miſs Williams, 118. verſes from the Chineſe 120. the longeſt day, 142. ode to rage, 143. ode for the encænia at Oxford, by R. Holmes, D. D. 165. a hermit's meditation, 190. the bard's epitaph, by Robert Burns, 192. ode to the morning, by G. Dyer, B. A. 214. ſonnet, 215. lines in memory of Mrs. M. French, by Dr. Darwin, ibid. the roſe, 216. ſtanzas on Steep-Hill, 238. retirement, an ode, 239. ſong, 240. paper, a poem, by Dr. Franklin, 262. ſonnet, by the Rev. George Wilmot, of Exeter, 263. to Lady —, 264. on a bee that was ſtifled in honey, ibid. verſes to the memory of the late Dr. Mudge, of Plymouth, 286. poem to virtue, 287. verſes compoſed in the night, 288. ſtanzas to a beautiful ſcold, ibid. Borough Hill, 310. an ode to youth, 312. deſcription of the Lake of Uri, in Switzerland, by V. Wordſworth, 334. addreſs to the riſing ſun, 335. hymn to Apollo, 358. a ſong, by Dr. Glynn, 359. addreſs to the Derwent, by the Rev. W. L. Bowles, ibid. the decline of ſummer, 360. Ariſtotle's hymn to virtue, 382. a ballad, by the late Mr. Shenſtone, 383. a ſong, by Miſs Locke, 384. epigram on the late Sir Sampſon Wright, ibid. abſence, an ode, by S. T. Coleridge, of Ottery St. Mary, 406. inſcription for a Gothic nich, 407. a ſong, 408. addreſs to contentment, ibid. youth and age, ibid. abſence, a poem, by S. T. C—ridge, of Ottery St. Mary, 430. religion, 432. the poor ſhipwrecked boy, 454. Mr. Cumberland's portrait of himſelf, 455. inſcription on a ſeat in Netherton Vale, in Hampſhire, 456. extempore by a perſon pierced with grief, 478. deſcription of the South Downs, in Suſſex, 478. character of Shakeſpear, 479. ſonnet to time, by Mrs. Robinſon, 480. epitaph on a young lady, ibid. ode to evening, 502. addreſs to the ſhade of Thomſon, by R. Burns, 503. ſonnet to the moon, 504. humility, ibid. on the death of Louis XVI. 526. the royal viſion of Marie Antoinette, Queen of France, 527. on the Queen of France, 550. epitaph to the memory of Mrs. Kenion, of Keſn, 552. a paſtoral, ibid. prologue to the comedy of the World in a Village, 574. hymn to Nemeſis, 575. written by a lady, on preſenting her picture to ſome friends, 576. on Raphael, ibid. on a pipe of tobacco, 598. on commerce, ibid. to a father on the bed of ſickneſs, 599. advice to a little girl, by Mr. Keate, 600. petition from Mrs. Delany's citron tree to the Ducheſs Dowager of Portland, 622. tranſlation of a prayer uſed by Francis the Firſt, 623. verſes on a beautiful and amiable young lady, 624. the judgment of flowers, 646. ſonnet, ibid.

Viſion, a, 347.

W.

War, the true meaning of the term explained, by Mrs. Barbauld, 160.

Watſon, Biſhop, his reflections on the preſent ſtate of affairs in Great-Britain and France, 101, 121.

Weights and meaſures, abſtract of the plan for eſtabliſhing an uniform ſyſtem of them, adopted by the French Convention, Auguſt 1, 1793, 274.

Welch clergyman, melancholy ſituation of a, 138.

Whig and Tory, on the diſtinction between, 13.

William, King, and Queen Mary, Dr. Somerville's character of, 444.

Wilmot, Rev. George, late of Exeter, account of his life, 265.

Y.

Yellow fever in Philadelphia, account of its progreſs, 577.

Z.

Zemin, an oriental tale, 529.